Pat Libby, member of Gulf Shores Garden Club, was recently awarded the Garden Club of Alabama's Member Award of Honor at the annual Convention held at Lakepoint Resort Lodge State Park in Eufaula. Pat has been a member of Gulf Shores Garden Club for eight years, but has been a member of a number of garden clubs in other states in which she has lived for 45 years. She has started several garden clubs, including one in this area, sponsored and chaired the Breast Cancer Garden, "Plant It Pink," in Gulf Shores, served as president of Gulf Shores Garden Club for three years, GCA Life membership chairman for four years and is currently serving on the Foley Beautification and Revitalization Board and two committees dedicated to the Foley Centennial in 2015. She is presently serving on the GCA Board as president of the Alabama Council of Flower Show Judges.
